

Memory interview

Kōrero with the eldest person in your whānau or community. As well as writing answers, you may like to record the conversation... just make sure you ask if that's okay.

My name: _____

I am interviewing: _____

Relationship: _____

What is your full name?

_____

What is your earliest memory?

_____

Where did you live at my age?

_____

Growing up, what was your favourite kai?

_____

What were your favourite games?

_____

What are your happiest memories?

_____

_____

If I travelled back in time, what's one thing that might surprise me?

_____

_____

What's one big change you've noticed from then to now?

_____

_____

Is there anything else I should know about that time?

_____

_____

My extra/special question: ..... ?

_____

_____

Memory poster

---

Make a poster about the person you interviewed. You can write a story or poem, draw a picture, or create a cartoon or collage. It can be about their childhood, or about what they're like today.

My name: _____